3 PLANS TO CHOOSE FROM ...

Entitles leader, named on the front of the card, and their family members to complimentary ski/snowboard privileges throughout the winter season.

Card may only be used by immediate family members (spouse, kids under 22 & FT college students living at home)

Spouse and kids may use card in the absence of the named leader & may also use the card on the day of a scheduled trip.

#2 GUEST CARD

Named leader must be present and skiing/riding with guests when the card is being used.

#3 THE 10-PACK TICKET PLAN (this plan is great when you need to reward several helpers)

Offers a group leader 10 individual one-day complimentary lift and rental tickets that can be used by anyone.

Each ticket also allows one "1st-timer" lesson to a skier or snowboarder. Tickets are valid any day in the 2011/20121 season.

No restrictions placed on the use of this ticket (except for snowboard and ski board rules of use as described above)

WHAT YOU CAN AND CAN'T GET WITH THE FAMILY & GUEST CARDS

Privileges include lift ticket, ski/snowboard rental and one "1st time" lesson for a non-skier or snowboarder. Cards may be used as often as you wish without limit. Cards are non-transferable.

- Snowboard Equipment Restrictions: any day, any time except: January 15 and February 19. On these dates board rentals will be released after 4:00 PM.

Cards will be honored any day or night.

Group lessons (1 ½ hrs.) for non-1st timers may be purchased at the discounted group rate of $22.00.

Ski School can be busy almost any day of the week. There are occasions when we cannot honor lesson requests. On any given day, but especially on holiday dates, call ahead to check lesson availability and the best time to schedule a lesson.

ON GROUP TRIP DAYS cards work differently ...

The named leader (on front of the card) will not use the VIP card to obtain a lift ticket. Instead, your ticket is issued from the standard 1/15 program allotment.

by the way ...

On group trip days, your spouse and kids can use the FAMILY card. A GUEST card allows two guests to obtain privileges. These VIP users will follow the normal VIP ticket procedure inside Group Sales.
