MP1 COMMENTS

Chang, Sheily: Mrs. Chang- Myra is a hard working student who is very curious about the world. She enjoys learning new things and enjoys helping others. We continue to work on Myra's ability to be mindful of the words she says to others. Myra is an avid reader who comprehends her stories well. I encourage her to read carefully to notice her characters and to reread to locate evidence to support her thinking. In writing, Myra writes is able to elaborate her ideas and writes with a good understanding of sentence structure. I encourage her to always find the importance in her stories and to write clearly and concisely. In math, Myra is able to understand many concepts and skills in class. We continue to work on her ability to use math vocabulary with details when explaining her thinking. I look forward to seeing her progress!

MP2 COMMENTS

Chang, Sheily: Mrs. Chang- Myra has continued to show a strong understanding of all content areas. She has made progress in understanding class rules but is encouraged to continue to be mindful of how she speaks to others. Myra enjoys reading. She comprehends much of the material read and is able to pull specific text evidence to support her thinking. We continue to build her comprehension by proving how her text evidence and her thoughts are connected. Mya also excels in writing, writing with expression, and writer's craft. I encourage her to continue to write in a clear and concise way while using a higher vocabulary. In math, Myra has shown growth in explaining her thinking. We continue to work towards showing her work carefully and neatly identifying her answers. Keep up the great work, Myra!

MP3 COMMENTS

Chang, Sheily: Mrs. Chang- Myra has made great progress this year. She continues to excel in all subject areas. We have been working on developing good work habits with Myra, specifically double-checking her work before submitting, as well as, working on her organization skills. In her writing, we continue to work on utilizing her vocabulary and word choice, as well as, writing in a clear and concise way. It has been a pleasure being her teacher. Please continue to read over the summer and best of luck in fourth grade!
